

Programme

Workshop Children's Experiences of Violence and Coercion in Europe since 1945

The Working Group for Eastern European History at the University Konstanz cordially invites you to the workshop organised within the project Violence in East and West - Towards an Integrated History of the 20th Century funded by the Volkswagen Stiftung.

Organised by Maria Buko, Jakub Gałęziowski, and Pavel Kolář.

Thursday 17.10.2024 (room K7)

9.15 Welcome by Maria Buko, Jakub Gałęziowski, and Pavel Kolář

9.30-11.30

Olga Gnydiuk (Vienna), Refugee Children's Experience, Protection and Subjectivity in Post-World War II Contexts

Friederike Kind-Kovács (Dresden), Out of the Camps: Hungarian Jewish Child Survivors in Postwar Sweden

Urszula Markowska (Warsaw), Discourses on Roma Children in the Context of Roma Communities and Ethnic Minorities. Historical Context and the Context of War, Post-dependence, and Transformation

Coffee break

11.45-13.45

Marco Nardone (Geneva), Children's Psychiatric Hospital in Mendrisio. Cases of the patients

Raphaela Monika Bollwein (Vienna), "With love, understanding and individual treatment". The Resettlement of Unaccompanied Children and Youth Classified as "Residual Cases" in the Post-WWII Period

Lukas Hartmann (Basel), Internationalist Experiments in Child Protection After 1945

Lunch break

14.45-16.45

Antti Malinen (Tampere), Small Bodies, Heavy Burdens: Children's Experiences and Management of Distress in Post-War Finland 1945–1960

Catarina Pimentel Neto (Lisbon), Child Labour in Portugal in the 20th century

Barbara Klich-Kluczewska (Cracow), Emotional Turn in Child Welfare. Children's Homes in Poland in the 60s

Friday 18.10.2024 (room K7)

9.00-11.00

Dana Mihăilescu (Bucharest), Representations of Jewish Children's Experiences of Dislocation in Early Post-World War II Romania in Memoirs by Émigré Authors to the United States

Dóra Pataricza (Szeged), From Darkness to Light: Szeged's Jewish Children and their Post-war Rehabilitation

Joanna Michlic (London), Missed Lessons from The Holocaust in the Content of Domestic Abuse against Children. Avoiding Complexities and Darker Aspects of Jewish Child Survivors' Life Experiences

Coffee break

11.15-12.00 Martina Winkler (Kiel), Concluding comments